Powered by HydraStat[™] Technology.
A complete formula for every stage of a woman's journey.

Product Overview

Every woman knows about the inconveniences that cycles and hormone changes can bring into life. Hers[™] was crafted to support women through every stage of that journey, from active cycle years to menopause and beyond. Powered by our HydraStat[™] Technology, our molecule-sized ingredients are wrapped in water clusters small enough to be absorbed fully by the human cell, delivering 13 active ingredients right where her body needs them.

Superior Absorption Through HydraStat[™] Technology

Hers uses our proprietary HydraStat[™] technology to break down its active ingredients into tiny particles, that become bioavailable within seconds. Fragile ingredients like Glutathione have been expensive to get into the bloodstream- until now.
